

North Carolina Boy's Academy

North Carolina Boy's Academy is a ministry of Teen Challenge that is dedicated to transforming at risk, 13-17 year old young men, through a personal relationship with Christ. Established in 1958, Teen Challenge is a worldwide organization founded by Pastor David Wilkerson in pursuit to end those trapped in life controlling issues. With a success rate of 86% of graduates, Teen Challenge has made a significant impact against the drug culture. Today, NCBA seeks to continue that vision by reaching hurting young men and their families from all across the nation. Our 15 month residential program addresses the spiritual, emotional, and academic needs of our students. NCBA is committed to the development of godly identity in the lives of its students. We believe that a personal relationship with Christ, along with biblical discipleship and counseling are the keys to transforming the hearts of this generation.
