

PASTOR PROFILE

Maadi Community Church (MCC) is seeking a godly, wise co-pastor, who is called by the Holy Spirit, to work alongside a fellow co-pastor, to assist in leading our unique, multicultural, multi-denominational, evangelical congregation in Cairo, Egypt.

The successful candidate needs to be a dynamic, inspiring leader with a passion for gathering and equipping God's people to go into the community to do the work for which He has called them.

Applicants must be passionate about shepherding the congregation as well as reaching the unchurched. The successful candidate will take the lead in implementing our new vision for a multi-site congregation.

Applicants must have a deep desire to humbly seek God's will and direction, both personally and corporately with our church community.

Applicants need to have a theological qualification from an accredited institution and be fluent in both spoken and written English.
